2. Basis of presentation

These condensed interim consolidated financial statements for the three months ended December 31, 2016 and 2015 have been prepared in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards ("IFRS") applicable to the preparation of interim financial statements, including International Accounting Standard 34 ("IAS 34"), Interim Financial Reporting. The accounting policies in these condensed interim consolidated financial statements are consistent with those disclosed in the Company's annual consolidated financial statements for the year ended September 30, 2016. The condensed interim consolidated financial statements should be read in conjunction with the Company's annual consolidated financial statements for the year ended September 30, 2016, which have been prepared in accordance with IFRS as issued by the International Accounting Standards Board ("IASB").

The condensed interim consolidated financial statements are presented in thousands of Canadian dollars.

3. Significant accounting policies

The accounting policies applied in these condensed interim consolidated financial statements are consistent with those disclosed in note 3 of the Company's annual consolidated financial statements for the year ended September 30, 2016. In preparing these condensed interim consolidated financial statements, the Company is required to make estimates and assumptions to determine the carrying amount of assets and liabilities reported. The significant areas requiring estimates and assumptions in determining the reported amounts relate to: the recoverable amount of goodwill; the valuation of contingent consideration classified as a liability; the valuation of assets and liabilities acquired in a business combination; the valuation of the Company's warranty obligation; and the recoverability of the Company's deferred tax asset recognized in the financial statements.

4. Acquisition of Mobi Corp.

On October 3, 2016, pursuant to an asset purchase agreement ("the Purchase Agreement") the Company acquired substantially all of the assets and assumed specified liabilities of Mobi Corp. Following the closing of the acquisition, the Company continues to operate the Mobi business under the Mobi business name ("Mobi"). The Mobi product offering enables its customers to manage operational activities such as planning, scheduling, routing and dispatching and uses available GPS data to provide additional analytics.

Pursuant to the Purchase Agreement, the Mobi assets were acquired via a payment of initial cash consideration before working capital adjustments of US$8 million. Additional cash consideration of up to US$17 million is eligible to be paid during a two-year period immediately following the closing of the acquisition. The deferred cash consideration is contingent upon the Mobi products achieving specified recurring revenue and adjusted EBITDA milestones calculated in accordance with US GAAP. For purposes of calculating adjusted EBITDA pursuant to the Purchase Agreement, adjusted EBITDA is defined as earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization and further adjusted by any non-cash expenses such as share based compensation. The deferred contingent consideration is payable in cash and has been recorded as a liability on the consolidated balance sheet at fair value based on management's best estimate of the probability of the Mobi business achieving the specified performance targets. The estimate of fair value takes into consideration the variability of when the performance targets will be met during the two-year window and a discount rate which is reflective of the risk inherent in the business attaining the performance targets.

In 000s of Canadian Dollars

The following table summarizes the fair value of consideration paid on the acquisition date and the allocation of the purchase price to the assets and liabilities acquired. In accordance with the Company's accounting policy, the Company has up to one-year following the acquisition date to finalize the accounting for a business combination. Accordingly, the accounting for the Mobi acquisition has been completed using provisional amounts within these condensed consolidated interim financial statements. Specifically, we note that the fair value of deferred contingent consideration, acquired assets and assumed liabilities may be adjusted from these provisional amounts within the one-year measurement period based on facts and circumstances which existed as of the acquisition date; however, have not been reflected herein.

Cash paid on closing	$ 7,727
Fair value of deferred contingent consideration	6,748
Total consideration	$ 14,475
Allocated to identifiable assets acquired and liabilities assumed:
Accounts receivable	$ 755
Investment in finance lease receivables	738
Inventories	230
Pre-paid expenses	121
Property and equipment	572
Accounts payable	(155)
Accrued liabilities	(520)
Capital lease obligations	(520)
Deferred revenue	(3,609)
Total allocated to identifiable assets acquired and liabilities assumed	$ (2,388)
Allocated to intangible assets and goodwill:
Customer contracts and relationships	8,395
Acquired technology	4,591
Goodwill	3,877
Total allocated to intangible assets and goodwill	$ 16,863

The goodwill recognized on the acquisition represents the incremental cost not specifically attributable to the identifiable assets and liabilities acquired. The goodwill is underpinned by an assembled work force that was retained as well as by the operating synergies we aim to achieve through leveraging our consolidated product offering. All of the goodwill acquired is expected to be deductible for tax purposes.

(i) On December 19, 2016, the Company obtained approval for its intention to commence a normal course issuer bid (the "Bid"). Under the terms of the Bid, the Company may acquire up to 7,027,655 common shares from time to time in accordance with TSX procedures, representing approximately 10% of the total public float of common shares. The Bid commenced on December 23, 2016 and will conclude on December 22, 2017, or earlier if the number of common shares sought in the Bid have been purchased. Other than purchases made in compliance with the provisions of the block purchase exemption of the TSX, daily purchases under the Bid will be limited to a maximum of 19,327 Common Shares which represents 25% of the average daily trading volume on the TSX for the period from June 1, 2016 to November 30, 2016.

From time to time, the Company may make purchases under the Bid via an automatic securities repurchase plan (the "Plan") through which the timing for the purchase of common shares, the number of common shares purchased and the price payable for the common shares will be determined by the Company's broker, in its sole discretion. Such purchases are subject to a prescribed maximum price payable having regard to the price limitations and other terms of the Plan and the rules of the TSX. As at December 31, 2016, the Company had a Plan in place with its broker. Given the automatic nature of the Plan, the Company has recognized a share repurchase liability of $689 in the statement of financial position. The share repurchase liability has been recorded at the maximum purchase exposure under the Plan during the period of January 1, 2017 through February 10, 2017 which is the period the Company anticipates being prohibited from cancelling or making amendments to the Plan due to TSX "blackout" restrictions.

10. Contingent consideration

The Company has recognized contingent consideration classified as a liability within the consolidated statements of financial position. The liability is recorded as the fair value of future deferred consideration associated with companies acquired in prior periods. Fair value is determined based on management's estimate of the present value of the amounts expected to be paid subject to the contingent performance targets for each respective acquisition.

Re-measurement of the fair value of contingent consideration is performed by the Company at each financial reporting period. Key unobservable inputs comprise management's best estimate of the probability that acquired businesses will achieve specified financial targets in specified time frames following the respective acquisitions. The estimated fair value increases as the estimated probability associated with the financial targets increase and vice versa for decreases in fair value. During the three months ended December 31, 2016, the Company did not make any revisions to its estimates of the probability of acquired businesses achieving the specified targets.

The following table shows a reconciliation from the beginning balances to the ending balances for fair value measurements in Level 3 of the fair value hierarchy.

The Company performs its impairment test for its sole CGU containing goodwill at each fiscal year end. The Company has not identified any goodwill impairments during the three months ended December 31, 2016. Balance at September 30, 2016	$ 22,163
Recognized on the acquisition of Mobi	3,968

The estimated annual tax rate used for the three months ended December 31, 2016 is 26.4% (2015 – 26.5%). The tax rate used represents management's estimate of the weighted average tax rate expected to be applicable on taxable income in the period. 14. New Accounting Standards

Certain new accounting standards and interpretations have been published that are not mandatory for adoption for reporting periods beginning on October 1, 2016 and have not been early adopted by the Company. The Company has not yet fully assessed the impact of these new standards and amendments or whether these standards and amendments will be early adopted.

i. IFRS 9, Financial Instruments. In July 2014, the IASB issued the final version of IFRS 9, Financial Instruments, which reflects all phases of the financial instruments project and replaces IAS 39, Financial Instruments - Recognition and Measurement, and all previous versions of IFRS 9. The standard introduces new requirements for classification and measurement, impairment and hedge accounting. IFRS 9 is effective for annual periods beginning on or after January 1, 2018, with early application permitted. Retrospective application is required, but comparative information is not compulsory.

ii. IFRS 15, Revenue from Contracts with Customers. In May 2014, the IASB issued IFRS 15, Revenue from Contracts with Customers, which establishes a single comprehensive model of accounting for revenue arising from contracts with customers that an entity will apply to determine the measurement of revenue and the timing of when it is recognized. This standard will replace IAS 18, Revenue, which covers contracts for goods and services and IAS 11, Construction Contracts, which covers revenue from construction contracts. The new standard is based on the principle that revenue is recognized when control of a good or service transfers to a customer - so the notion of control replaces the existing notion of risks and rewards. The new standard will be effective for the fiscal year beginning on or after January 1, 2018 and earlier application is permitted. Adoption of the standard may have flow-on effects on adopting an entity's business practices regarding systems, processes and controls, compensation and bonus plans, contracts, tax planning and investor communications. Entities will have a choice of full retrospective application, or prospective application with additional disclosures.

iii. IFRS 16, Leases. On January 13, 2016, the IASB issued IFRS 16, Leases, which will replace IAS 17, Leases. The new standard will be mandatorily effective for fiscal years beginning on or after January 1, 2019 and earlier application is permitted. Under the new standard, all leases will be recorded on the balance sheet of lessees, except those that meet the limited exception criteria.
